Robert Wenhams Claims to Have Been Defrauded.

A CHICAGO REAL ESTATE DEAL

In Which Brothers Have a Good Time—An Accounting of the Investment Now Asked For.

Robert Wenhams has begun a new suit in chancery in the circuit court against his brother, John C. Wenhams of this city. He claims that his brother has defrauded him of a large sum of money in connection with a real estate deal in Chicago. The suit was filed yesterday morning.

REPORTED A SUSPENSION.

W. Gault applied for a position on the police force. Referred to the committee on men and discipline.

The order of the commission called attention to their annual meeting next fall and urged that steps be taken to entertain them better than they were entertained in Detroit last year. Referred to the committee on finance.

Court Notes.

Lovina Davis, widow of the late Stephen B. Davis, began suit for herself and the other heirs against C. P. Friend, executor of the estate, asking that a certain description of land contained in the will be amended. Owing to a mistake in certain tax receipts, from which Mr. Davis drew his description for the will, he described a piece of land which he never owned.

Judge Burlingame issued an order yesterday appointing William H. Leckie clerk of the superior court from May 1, 1900, to May 1, 1901. The order contained no allusion to the full term, from 1900 to 1901.

Frances Ely, executrix of the estate of Andrew Borden, began suit in the circuit court to foreclose a mortgage of $300 on land owned by Theodosia E. Lake.

The jury in the opening of Logan street awarded $1,400 damages for an opening 419 feet in length.

Dr. Kilmer's SWAMP-ROOT

Poor Health for Years. Doctors said he Could Not Live! HIS LIFE SAVED!

Mr. Wilcox is a practical farmer and a successful country merchant. He is a native of his village, serving and popular and well known for miles around. He writes: "I had been in poor health for years. Four of our best physicians could give me no encouragement. Some of them said I would not live a year. My difficulties, aggravated by rheumatism, were so severe and chronic that I had given up ever being well again. I took Swamp-Root for a considerable length of time, three times a day, and to-day my health is very good, in fact, better than the majority of men of my age—sixty-eight years. I give your Swamp-Root credit for saving my life, and the good health I now enjoy is due to its use." J. D. WILCOX, Oswego, Pa.
